As of January 1, 2012, the California Transparency in Supply Chains Act of 2007 (SB 657) has gone into effect regarding Human Trafficking and Slavery. Tellurian Technologies, Inc. has a high regard for human rights and maintains a policy of zero tolerance of any supplier that does not prevent the use of forced or child labor. Tellurian Technologies, Inc. conforms at all times with its own policies and it's suppliers with the Electronic Industry Citizenship Coalition's Code of Conduct.

Tellurian Technologies, Inc. believes that none of its suppliers engage in any Forced Labor practices. Tellurian periodically reviews all suppliers and verifies all labor practices internally.

Tellurian Technologies, Inc. will begin to audit all suppliers and continue to require their code of conduct comply with the EICC Code of Conduct.

Tellurian Technologies, Inc. requires all suppliers to certify that materials incorporated into their products comply with all international and national laws on slavery and human trafficking.

Tellurian Technologies, Inc. has required that all employees comply with the EICC Cod of Conduct and will train appropriate personnel in the identification and response to Forced Labor issues.

Tellurian Technologies, Inc. will continue to take all appropriate action to ensure that all our products are produced ethically. For any further inquires, please contact Rich Strysik, Quality Control Manager, at 847-934-4141 or r.strysik@telluriantech.com.
